ARTICLE 1: Scope, Goals and Forms of Cooperation

The signing Institutions agree to provide opportunities as appropriate for the following activities toward the completion of the objectives of this MOU:

1. Exchange of ideas to offer courses and realize research projects in areas mutually agreed upon by both parties through prior invitation and by the procedures and expectations established by each institute and specific department.
2. The Second party will provide a research guide and support in various fields as on the demand of the first party for conducting research related to the thesis dissertation requirements of the research students.
3. Operational details of research effort and collaboration will be made in common research programs and/or projects restricted to specific mandated domains within the approved disciplines divisions.
4. Research instrumentation facility and library facilities available with the Second party and the First party will be made available to the faculty and research scholars. However, the costs of specific consumables will be borne by the respective organizations.
5. Exchange of scientific publications, study programs, academic projects, course information, seminars, conferences, and any other data and information of common interest.
6. Both Institutions will develop joint research projects; promote incubation technology, start-ups, organization of seminars, symposia, workshops for the benefit of the students.
7. Submitting proposals jointly to various Central/State Department Organizations under different Schemes using each other's competencies by mutual consent.
8. All joint activities will be realized through the mutual agreement and established conditions and mutual obligations of the appropriate Institution entity.

ARTICLE 2: Management

1. The principal, of the second party and the Principal, Dayanand Vedic College, Orai, of the first party will be responsible for working out operational details of cooperation between the two organizations and ensuring proper and effective implementation of this MOU.
2. The Advisory Committee will meet at least once a year alternatively in the Institution of the First Party and the Second Party to review the activities. This meeting shall include a presentation on the academic and research activities, which should be open to all students, faculties and scientists.

ARTICLE 3: Exchange of Information

1. The term "information" includes scientific or technical data results and/or methods of investigation, and other information intended to be provided, exchanged, or arising under project descriptions entered into under this MOU.
2. The parties support the widest possible dissemination of information. Each party in joint projects shall be given the right to use, disclose, publish, or disseminate such information for any purpose.

ARTICLE 4: Implementation of the Memorandum of Understanding

1. It is understood that the First Party and the Second Party subscribe to the principle of equal opportunity and do not discriminate based on state, race, sex, age, caste, or religion. Both the institutions shall abide by these principles in the administration of this agreement and neither party shall impose criteria for the exchange of scholars or students, which violate principles of non-discrimination.
2. Students and research scholars may visit the corresponding departments of the Institute after finalizing a mutually acceptable schedule.
3. All the expenses shall be the direct responsibility of the concerned student(s) (subject to any agreements on payment arrangements made by either Institution with its students).
4. The researchers will be allowed to make use of the instruments and other research facilities available in various departments of these Institutions after prior approval of the visiting schedule and due approval from the Heads of both Institutions.
5. Both parties promote research and realize collaborative projects giving priority to interdisciplinary works.

ARTICLE 5: Terms and Conditions

1. This MOU shall become effective from the date it is signed by the parties and shall be valid for three years extendable up to five years. Both parties shall review the status of the MOU at the end of each three/five-year period to determine any modification, whenever necessary. The period of validity of this MOU may be extended by mutual consent up to five years. This MOU may be amended by mutual written agreement and may be terminated at any time by either party upon written notification signed by the competent authority of the party initiating termination. Such notification must be given to the other party at least six months in advance from the effective date of termination.
2. All joint activities not completed at the expiration or termination of the MOU may be continued until their completion under the terms of this MOU.
3. No amendment or modification of the MOU shall be valid unless the same is made in writing by both the parties or their authorized representatives and specifically stating the same for amendment of the MOU. The modifications/changes shall become part of the MOU and shall be effective from the date on which they are made/executed unless otherwise agreed.
4. Financial terms and conditions will be decided mutually as per the needs of both parties. This MOU will be considered only for academic and R&D purposes only by both parties.

ARTICLE 6: Arbitration

1. Any issues that are not addressed or stipulated in the MoU shall be discussed and resolved through negotiation in good faith and such resolution will be incorporated as written amendments to the MoU by mutual agreement between both Parties.
2. No disputes are foreseen in the implementation of the MoU. The two Parties, however, agree that if any dispute arises between them, efforts will be made to settle the same as amicably as possible. If the dispute remains unsettled, it will be referred for resolution bilaterally to the Principal, Dayanand Vedic College, Orai and Principal and the Principal, Arya Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Jhansi. The decisions so arrived at shall be final and binding on the parties to this MoU.

This MOU has been executed in two originals, one of which has been retained by the First party and the other by the Second party).
